

SALES ORDER FULFILLMENT METHODS

	Direct Import	Direct Delivery	Direct Ship	Standard	Direct Fulfillment	Blind Fulfillment	Web Fulfillment
Description	Customer picks up directly from overseas supplier, usually at port	Shipment from overseas supplier direct to customer's door or agreed upon location	Domestic shipment shipped directly to our customer from a 3PL (3rd Party Logistics provider)	Fulfilled from Advantus warehouse to customer location (DC, store)	Shipment to end user on behalf of our customer	Shipment to end user as our customer	Shipment to end user as Advantus from Advantus-controlled website
			3PL
Ships From	Overseas supplier	Overseas supplier	3PL warehouse	Advantus facility	Advantus facility	Advantus facility	Advantus facility
Appears to Ship From	Advantus	Advantus	Advantus	Advantus	Advantus	Customer	Website Name

Ships To	Port/EXF (picked up by Customer)	Customer or agreed upon location	Customer	Customer	End user	End user	End user
Indicator	Customer record, Sales Order Location	Sales Order Location	Location = sub-location of Outside Domestic or International		Customer record	Customer record	Customer, Order Source = WEB
Sales Order Location	Direct Import	Direct Import	Outside locations	Advantus locations	Advantus locations	Advantus locations	Advantus locations
Shipping Docs Source	Advantus	Advantus	Advantus	Advantus	Advantus	Customer determined (portal or customer-approved Advantus)	Advantus
Freight Paid By	Customer	Advantus	Mixed	Mixed	Mixed	Customer	Advantus
Fulfillment Path	Direct Import	Native NetSuite	Native NetSuite, Bulk Fulfillment	DSDC, Task Picking, Bulk Fulfillment	Task Picking	Task Picking	Task Picking